ELLERY - DENNISON - PARSONS

This volume is a record of three settlers of above names on Cape Ann in Gloucester, Mass. and of many of their descendants.

It is believed that the three are the first of the name in America. The compiler James B. Ellery is a direct descendant from each of the three.

He here presents in printed form data which has come to him from various sources to be thus made available to all who may be interested.

WILLIAM ELLERY, the first of that name in Gloucester, and so far as I am aware, the first of that name in America, was born in Bristol, England about 1643. He came to Gloucester in 1663, that is, Babson, Page 84, says his first appearance in Gloucester is that of his marriage October 8, 1663 to Hannah Vinson.

George Dennison was a grandson of an English army officer stationed in Ireland. His father lived in Ireland and George was born in Dublin in 1699. He came to Boston in 1712, later to Gloucester and there died March 14, 1747-8.

In the Stonington, Connecticut branch of the family there is a George also born 1699, there the name has but one N (DENISON) whereas the Gloucester George and his descendants carry two N's (DENNISON).

Jeffrey Parsons was born in Ashprington, England in 1631, near Dartmouth, Devonshire County. He went to Barbadoes, then to Gloucester, Massachusetts where he bought land in 1655 and where he married Sarah VINSON, November 11, 1657.

Slightly enlarged reproduction of wood engraving in J. J. Babson's "History of Gloucester," made from sketch by artist Fitz Hugh Lane (1804-1864).

the WHITE-ELLERY HOUSE

at the Green

Gloucester, Massachusetts

Believed to have been built not later than 1650, this ancient dwelling was perhaps occupied by Gloucester's first town clerk, Obadiah Bruen, who left in that year to become a pioneer settler of New London, Conn., and later of Newark, N.J. For a number of years, beginning in 1704, it was the home of Rev. John White, the third minister of the First Church of Gloucester. About 1735 it was bought by James Stevens, and in 1740 was sold by him to Capt. William Ellery, both of whom kept tavern here and entertained the town selectmen who met in its rooms. It was owned and occupied continuously by members of the Ellery family until 1946. The first of this family, William, came to Gloucester from Bristol, England, in 1643 and was forebear of many distinguished men, including William Ellery, signer of the Declaration of Independence for the State of Rhode Island, Rev. Dr. William Ellery Channing, called the "father of Unitarianism" and a number of prominent merchants of Gloucester and Boston.

William Ellery (1643-1696) and Descendants

The main source of data is the Chart, Ellery of U.S.A. Pedigree. Arranged by Harrison Ellery from his memorial of the Ellery family in manuscript, Boston, 1881.

The chart shows the seal of Hon. Benjamin Ellery from an impression on a power of attorney given by Capt. John Ellery, to his brother Capt. Benjamin, dated at Newport, March 27, 1708. Several other examples of its use on deeds, bonds, etc., are in the family.

Popworth's British Armorials (P. 342) thus mentions these arms: "Per chevron, argent and azure, a border engrailed, que Altaribus or Elders."

Harl M. S. 1535, folio 13 b: "Per chevron, argent and azure, a border engrailed, or Eldres or Eleris." "Per chevron, azure and argent, a border engrailed, que Eldres, Eldrys V, Elrys V." "V" refers to Glover's Ordinary, Cotton M. S., Tiberius D 10. Harl M. S. S. 1392 and 1459.

Also, the chart shows Benj. Ellery's Book Plate.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the smell of fresh air. It was a relief after being stuck in traffic for hours.
I took a deep breath and felt my lungs expand. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds
were singing. It was a beautiful day, and I was finally free.
I walked towards the park, feeling the grass under my feet. The children were playing happily,
and the dogs were running freely. I smiled and felt my heart melt. This was exactly what I needed.
I sat on a bench and watched the world go by. The time seemed to stand still. I felt at peace, and I knew that this was my chance to reconnect with nature.
I stood up and walked towards the lake. The water was calm, and the reflection
of the trees was perfect.
I took a small boat and rowed gently. The breeze
was cool, and the sun
was warm. I felt like I was in a dream.
I rowed until I reached the other side of the lake. I looked back and saw the
park from a new perspective.
It was beautiful, and I knew that I would never forget this day.
I walked back to the car, feeling renewed and happy. I took one last look at the park and then drove home. I knew that I would always remember this day.

Jeffrey
(Base)

(Aunt Josie's Note Book) (Base Cards A-Z) (Ref. 3)

Elizabeth Morgan, descended from James Parsons was living at Ashprington, England (in 1714) near Exeter and Dartmouth, Devonshire County. This was birthplace of James and of his brother Jeffrey who was born in 1631. Jeffrey Parsons went from Devonshire to Barbadoes, then to Gloucester, Mass., where he bought land in 1655, and married November 11, 1657, to Sarah VINSON, sister of Hannah Vinson who wed William Ellery. Per Mrs. Hudson (July, 1929) to J. B. E. Jeffrey was born about 1631 at Ashprington, Devonshire County, England, and wed Sarah Vinson Nov. 11, 1657. She died Jan. 12, 1708 and he died Aug. 16, 1689.

Ref. 3 (p. 307-8): Notes copied by Rachael Parsons from "Parsons Family in England". Robert Parsons Esq. of Exmouth, Devonshire, Past Captain in Royal Navy, had a son Edward and a daughter Frances. Lady Jane Parsons, daughter of Earl of Rosse, wed Arthur Edward Knapp, officer in the 2nd Life Guards. Parsons Earl of Rosse: 3 leopard's faces, crest out of a ducal coronet, an arm holding a sprig of roses. Rev. William Parsons assumed the name and arms of Hopton 1817 and wed Ann Pool. Edward Hyde, (Sir Thomas Aylesbury) wed Anna, daughter of Edward and Frances Hyde, and became Lord Chancellor.

Babson p. 120: Jeffrey born 1631 in England and when quite young went with an uncle to Barbadoes. Served there several years and then to New England. He left in England a brother James who died there about 1708 leaving several children, one of whom Elizabeth Morgan was living in 1714 at Ashprington, near Dartmouth, as per her letter to her Cousin James in New England dated 1714, copies of which are preserved in the family. In April, 1655, he bought of Giles Barge 1 1/2 acres in Fisherman's Field. Also about the same time he bought house and land at same place that George Ingersoll, and earlier George Norton had owned. There fixed his residence and descendants still live around there. He (met and) wed Sarah Vinson, Nov. 11, 1657. Selectman for several years and died Aug. 16, 1689, leaving estate of 317 lbs. She died Jan. 12, 1708.

Aunt Josie's Memo Sheet: Fell from his horse at Vinson's Spring, foot of Union Hill. Faint, Sarah gave him water, love and married.

Cutter Boston and Eastern Mass. (p. 1211): The first Parsons in America was cornet Joseph Parsons and covers descendents in Springfield, etc. (Jeffrey not mentioned.)

At 51 Middle St., Gloucester, Benj. Haley has etching on wall showing Cornet Joseph's house, Northampton, built 1658.
